

REVOLUTION DISMISSED: PROTEST IN PUTIN'S RUSSIA

PHOTO CREDIT: ALLA TETERINA (UATE)

LECTURE WITH AUTHOR MISCHA GABOWITSCH

Born in 1977, Mischa Gabowitsch is a sociologist and historian who studies protest and social movements in Russia as well as Soviet war memorials. He is a research fellow at the Einstein Forum in Potsdam, Germany. His recent book Protest in Putin's Russia draws on interviews, observation, and a detailed database that combines media reports with participants' accounts and photos. He has also written about structural similarities between liberal, nationalist, and commemorative movements.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7 at 4 P.M.

Elizabeth E. Nanovic Seminar Room, 1050 Nanovic Hall

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Sponsored by the Department of Political Science, College of Arts and Letters and the Nanovic Institute for European Studies, Keough School of Global Affairs.

